

(Annex a): Individual Measure for the EU-IOM Joint Initiative in Sub-Saharan Africa: Logical Framework

Results	Results chain (@): Main expected results (maximum 10)	Indicators (@): (at least one indicator per expected result)	Targets	Sources of data	Assumptions
Overall Objective	To contribute to safe, orderly and regular migration in the Sahel and Lake Chad and Horn of Africa regions	1 Number of returning migrants in the Sahel and Lake Chad and Horn of Africa regions, disaggregated by sex 2 % of returning migrants reporting sufficient levels of economic self-sufficiency, social stability, and psychosocial wellbeing in their community of return	1. 12 350 14 035 2. 70%	1 Database of beneficiaries 2 Reintegration sustainability survey (scores above 0.5)	Not applicable
Specific Objective 1	1. Vulnerable and stranded migrants have access to enhanced protection services and to safe, humane, dignified voluntary return	1.1 % of migrants who report that they have been provided with sufficient and useful information to take an informed decision to return 1.2 % of migrants satisfied with travel arrangements made for them	1.1 70% 1.2 70%	1.1 Beneficiary surveys 1.2 Beneficiary surveys	Security and political contexts are stable and IOM can programme safely. Migrants continue to require and engage in voluntary return and reintegration assistance.
Specific Objective 2	2. Returning migrants achieve improved economic, social and psychosocial reintegration that also benefits communities	2.1 % of returning migrants satisfied with post-arrival assistance 2.2 % of returning migrants who report they are satisfied with the reintegration assistance received from IOM	2.1 70% 2.2 70%	2.1 Beneficiary surveys 2.2 Beneficiary surveys	Migrants are reachable and willing to complete surveys. Migrants' expectations regarding travel arrangements can be managed within scope of programme.
Specific Objective 3	3. Migrants and communities make better-informed decisions about migration	3.1 % of surveyed community leaders reporting that perceptions of migration have changed within their communities	3.1 70%	3.1 Community leader surveys	No deterioration of political or security situation that trigger forced migration. There is access to the target communities.

(Annex a): Individual Measure for the EU-IOM Joint Initiative in Sub-Saharan Africa: Logical Framework

Specific Objective 4	4. Partner countries and relevant stakeholders have enhanced capacity in migration management and strengthened migration data and communication	4.1 % of partners reporting that data produced has supported evidence-based policies and programmes design 4.2 % of government and civil society partners reporting increased knowledge, capacity and/or resources on migration management 4.3 % of government and civil society partners declaring that they are more engaged in the field of voluntary return and reintegration assistance	4.1 70% 4.2 70% 4.3 70%	4.1 Stakeholder survey, KIIs 4.2 Stakeholder survey, KIIs 4.3 Stakeholder survey, KIIs	Governments and local actors are engaged in efforts to provide assistance to migrants.
Result 1.1	1.1 Stranded migrants or migrants in transit receive protection and assistance services.	1.1.1 # of transit centres or migrant resource and response centres (MRRC) that are supported 1.1.2 # of migrants in transit provided with protection and direct assistance (disaggregated by sex)	1.1.1 32 1.1.2 16,330 17 814	1.1.1 Programme records 1.1.2 Database of beneficiaries	Governments and local actors are engaged in efforts to provide assistance to migrants.
Result 1.2	1.2 Migrants benefit from a safe and dignified voluntary return assistance.	1.2.1 # of migrants assisted to return voluntarily to their countries of origin (disaggregated by sex and country of destination)	1.2.1 12,350 14 035	1.2.1 Database of beneficiaries	Once given sufficient and reliable information, migrants opt to return voluntarily.
Result 2.1	2.1 Returning migrants are supported with post-arrival and reintegration assistance in their country of origin.	2.1.1 # of returning migrants provided with post-arrival assistance, disaggregated by sex 2.1.2 # of beneficiaries who have received reintegration assistance, disaggregated by sex 2.1.3 # of reception centres or migrant resource and response centres (MRRC) that are supported	2.1.1 20,900 26 345 2.1.2 17,900 23 408 2.1.3 9	2.1.1 Programme records 2.1.2 Programme records 2.1.3 Programme records	Actors / partners exist that can provide different elements of reintegration assistance. Actors / partners remain committed and willing to provide reintegration assistance. Partners costs to provide reintegration assistance are not excessive or unfeasible (e.g. in complex medical cases).

(Annex a): Individual Measure for the EU-IOM Joint Initiative in Sub-Saharan Africa: Logical Framework

Result 3.1	3.1 Migrants and communities are informed and sensitized on the dangers of and alternatives to irregular migration.	3.1.1 # of people sensitized via information campaigns on migration and risks linked to irregular migration	3.1.1 76,600	3.1.1 Programme records	Security and political contexts are stable and IOM can programme safely. Authorities support dissemination of awareness campaign in key areas of origin / transit/return.
Result 4.1	4.1 Migration data and evidence are collected, analysed and disseminated.	4.1.1 # of field studies, DTM reports and other research conducted 4.1.2 # visits to DTM migration data platform 4.1.3 # of studio workshops held	4.1.1 98 4.1.2 100,000 4.1.3 2	4.1.1 Programme records 4.1.2 Programme records 4.1.3 Programme records	Targeted institutions remain committed and willing to collect and monitor reintegration data.
Result 4.2	4.2 Relevant stakeholders are supported to further build their capacities in migration management.	4.2.1 # of partner organisations supported through capacity building or operational support in migration management 4.2.2 # of government and CSO representatives trained, disaggregated by sex	4.2.1 415 4.2.2 652	4.2.1 Programme records 4.2.2 Programme records	Security and political contexts are stable and IOM can programme safely.
Activities	Result 1.1 Stranded migrants or migrants in transit receive protection and assistance services <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Activity 1.1.1 Direct and specialized assistance of migrants in transit - Activity 1.1.2 Search and Rescue Operations - Activity 1.1.3 Development and roll-out of Migrants management tool - Activity 1.1.4 Emergency direct assistance fund Result 1.2 Migrants benefit from a safe and dignified voluntary return assistance <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Activity 1.2.1 Assisted voluntary return

(Annex a): Individual Measure for the EU-IOM Joint Initiative in Sub-Saharan Africa: Logical Framework

	Result 2.1 Returning migrants are supported with post-arrival and reintegration assistance in their country of origin. <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Activity 2.1.1 Post arrival assistance- Activity 2.1.2 Reintegration assistance Result 3.1 Migrants and communities are informed and sensitized on the dangers of and alternatives to irregular migration <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Activity 3.1.1 Awareness-raising activities and community dialogues Result 4.1 Migration data and evidence are collected, analysed and disseminated. <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Activity 4.1.1 Establishment of FMP and DTM, monitoring, survey and information sharing- Activity 4.1.2 Data analysis, research and innovation - including trainings, profiling, foresight and other studies.- Activity 4.1.3 Database and Information Management- Activity 4.1.4 Online referral mechanism Result 4.2 Relevant stakeholders are supported to further build their capacities in migration management. <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Activity 4.2.1 Capacity building and technical assistance of Governments and other partners- Activity 4.2.2 Support to ECOWAS/IGAD/AU
--	--